

singing for your soul!

For beginners, seasoned choristers, and those who excel in the shower, a brand new group singing experience for those who would love to find their voice and work together to explore rhythms, vocal chants & beautiful songs from around the world - all taught with a wholistic approach based on joy and inclusivity. Jacqueline Gawler is a singer/percussionist/songwriter with iconic, internationally award-winning vocal ensemble Coco's Lunch, and travels the globe as a freelance jazz singer - recently launching her solo album in Brazil. As an experienced ensemble director, vocal teacher and percussionist, Jacq facilitates her classes with passion and positive energy! Ability to read music not necessary.

african drumming classes

Got two hands and a heartbeat? then you can drum!! Tap into your inner rhythm and experience the exhilaration of traditional african drumming in a relaxed and supportive atmosphere. Simone Lang, founder and director of Drummergirl, has been studying, performing and teaching African drumming for over 15 years and has studied with some of West Africa's finest exponents of the tradition in West Africa and Australia. Simone is renowned for her charismatic, playful approach and ability to impart her knowledge of African drumming and culture with joy and integrity. No musical experience necessary. All drums and instruments provided. Families welcome (suitable for ages 7 yrs-70yrs +).

The Muladhara Room : : 44 Koala Drive Newham (off Woodend-Lancefield Rd)

Term 3 dates : : Sat mornings 13 Aug - 17 Sept 2011 (6 week course)

Times : : Singing 10-11am; Drumming 11.15am-12.15pm

Cost : : $90 for 6 week course of singing OR drumming; or $150 for both singing & drumming

Casual attendance by prior arrangement. BOOKINGS ESSENTIAL!

Singing tel. 0419854804 info@jacquelinegawler.com Drumming tel. 0431434538 info@drummergirl.com.au

www.jacquelinegawler.com

www.drummergirl.com.au